5. Brief Summary of the Programme:

A one-day workshop on “Indian Knowledge System (Indian Business Management) for B. Com. I” was jointly organized by the NEP Committee, Department of Commerce and IQAC of Shri Shahaji Chhatrapati Mahavidyalaya Kolhapur. The workshop commenced with a welcome address and introductory remarks by Professor Santosh Kamble, Head Department of Commerce. In his speech, he emphasized the importance of incorporating the Indian Knowledge System into the curriculum and elaborated on the objectives of the workshop.

The workshop was conducted in four sessions. In the first session, Professor Santosh Kamble guided students on the evolution of Indian management and key concepts associated with it.

In the second session, Professor Soujanya Nagannavar provided insights into the role of values in management and the relevance of Indian epics in managerial practices.

The third session, led by Professor Suman Lohar, focused on the business models of Tata Group, Bajaj Group, and Aditya Birla Group.

In the fourth and final session, Professor Santosh Kamble discussed the business models of Reliance Industries and Amul.

The workshop was chaired by the Principal, Dr. R. K. Shanediwan. In his presidential address, he highlighted that, under the National Education Policy-2020, the Indian Knowledge System has been included in the B.Com. Part I curriculum starting this year. He emphasized that this subject will help students understand how ancient Indian knowledge can be applied in contemporary contexts and encouraged them to study it diligently. The workshop was graced by the presence of Dr. Namdev Jadhav, NEP Coordinator; Dr. Rahul Mandanikar, IQAC Coordinator; and Dr. K. M. Desai, Head of College Examinations. It was compered by Professor Soujanya Nagannavar. Professor Suman Lohar expressed vote of thanks. The workshop received tremendous response from the students and faculty members from the Department of Commerce.
