5. Brief Summary of the Programme:

A national seminar entitled "Sustainable Development in India: Strategies and Emerging Trends in Businesses" was meticulously organized by IQAC and the Department of Commerce at Maharshi Vs. Res in Shinde Auditorium on 16 March 2024. The inaugural event featured the unveiling of a poster on sustainable development created by students of the college, where dignitaries were present to grace the occasion. The seminar commenced with a prayer, followed by a warm welcome and introduction by Commerce Department Head and Seminar Coordinator, Mr. Santosh Kamble, who highlighted the significance of sustainable development in business and provided an overview of the seminar's objectives. Subsequently, IQAC Coordinator Dr. Rahul Mandanikar shared insights on the institution's activities, including the progress of students through initiatives such as the Shahaji Urja Paritoshik Yojana, the college's sports department, and its recent NAAC-A assessment. Principal Dr. R. K. Shenediwan then elaborated on the college's advancements, ongoing activities, and the prestigious A Grade accreditation (CGPA- 3.13) received from NAAC as a result of continuous efforts to enhance quality over the years. He anticipated that participants, including students and professors, would gain valuable insights into business planning through the seminar and concluded his address as the presiding officer of the event. On this occasion, the Vidyawarta research journal prepared a special issue for this seminar by collecting articles specifically for the event. This distinguished special issue was published by esteemed dignitaries. We would like to express our gratitude to Dr. M. A. Shinde for welcoming the guest. Dr Rajkiran Biraje, welcomed and introduced the theme of the said special issue. During the keynote address, Dr. S. S. Mahajan, Dean of Commerce and Management at Shivaji University, Kolhapur, provided insights on the 17 principles of sustainable development. He highlighted the importance of businesses striving towards sustainable progress and implementing various strategies to achieve this goal, as well as the need for changes in our behavior and habits. Dr. Mahajan emphasized that by making necessary adjustments, sustainable development can be attained while maintaining environmental balance. Prof. Mrs. Dr. V. V. Maidargi presided over this session, where Dr. S. S. Mahajan's speech was critically analyzed, emphasizing the eradication of poverty through sustainable development. Following this, the chairperson and chairman of the first session, Dr. M. A. Shinde introduced and welcomed the instrumental figure of the session, Dr. P. M. Kulkarni, Professor at KLS Institute of Management Education and Research, Belgaum, Karnataka. Dr. Kulkarni provided guidance on "Sustainable Development Growth and Skill Development," illustrating how skill development plays a crucial role in achieving sustainable development through real-life examples. He stressed that sustainable development is a pressing objective of our time, and innovation is essential in this pursuit. Dr. A. G. Suryavanshi, Associate Professor at The New College, Kolhapur, chaired this session, reviewing Dr. P. M. Kulkarni's address and encouraging researchers to explore the numerous research opportunities in this field. Prof. Mrs. U. A. Patil expressed her thanks for this session. Welcome and introduction of the esteemed guest done by Vrishali Shirgure. The distinguished individual for the second session, Dr. K. V. Marulkar (Chairman, BOS in Commerce, Shivaji University, Kolhapur), provided valuable guidance on the topic of "Corporate Governance and Sustainable Development". This session was presided over by Prof. S. V. Bachchan (Assistant Professor, Mahavir College, Kolhapur). During his address, Dr. K. V. Marulkar reflected on the discussions and emphasized the importance of utilizing natural resources effectively for achieving sustainable development alongside progress. Following this, a paper reading session was conducted under the leadership of Dr. M. A. Koli (HoD, Department of Accountancy, Sadashivrao Mandlik Mahavidyalaya, Murgud). During this session, researchers presented their findings in the form of research articles. Dr. M. A. Koli took the time to review the research articles and expressed his satisfaction with the high quality of the contributions. Mrs. Asmita Inamdar extended her gratitude for the successful session.

Dr. A. M. Gurav, the Head of Department of Commerce and Management at Shivaji University, Kolhapur, provided invaluable guidance on incorporating social consciousness into sustainable development in our daily lives during his role as the chief guest in the closing session. He also offered insights on strategic planning to achieve sustainable development goals in business. The session, led by the College Principal Dr. R. K. Shanediwan, included a review of Dr. Gurav's speech, which was well-received. Prof. Santosh Kamble, the seminar coordinator, facilitated a thorough review of all seminar sessions. The success of the seminar, attended by over 100 researchers, professors, and students, was attributed to the diligent work of all committee members and the strong support and guidance from Shree Shahu Chhatrapati Shikshan Sanstha's Chairman Hon. Mr. Mansingh Vijayrao Bondre, Hon. Secretary Mrs. Sangeeta Vijayrao Bondre, Principal Dr. R. K.
