Respected Sir/Madam,

Directly from Anudip Foundation for Social Welfare!

We would like to extend our sincere thanks for the opportunity to meet with you today at your office and for your interest in our program.

Anudip Foundation for Social Welfare, established in 2007, is a Section 8 non-profit organization registered under the Companies Act of 2013, headquartered in Kolkata. Our mission is to create livelihood opportunities for marginalized women and youth across India. Over the last 15 years, Anudip has partnered with national and international agencies, corporations, and community organizations to provide sustainable digital livelihood programs. These initiatives have positively impacted over 450,000 lives, benefitting underserved youth in rural and peri-urban areas across 22 states. Our goal is to empower individuals by providing employability training in the digital services sector, thereby fostering economic independence.

As discussed in our meeting, we are excited to share with you the details of our short-duration courses, which are in high demand. These courses, developed by industry experts, offer students the chance to earn certifications through the IBM Skills Build platform upon completing any of the modules.

Some key benefits of the program for students include:

- Gaining essential digital skills and 21st-century competencies
 - Enhancing employability skills
 - Earning certifications based on assessments
 - Advancing towards a successful career
 - Accessing the web version for self-paced learning through the IBM Skills Build platform
 - Opportunities to engage with industry experts
- The intended participants for this program fall under the following criteria:

Age Group: 18 to 25 Years

Qualification: 12th grade, ITI, Diploma, or Graduation in any stream

We are happy to offer this program free of charge to students recommended by your institution, with no hidden fees or additional costs. Our team will provide full support to help selected students successfully complete their training and certification.

We look forward to a fruitful collaboration and are available for any further discussions or information you may need.

Warm regards,

Dept. of B.C.A.

Shewade Madam
