- 3. Objectives of the Programme : 1) To make students, and volunteers aware about AIDS
2) To create awareness about the disadvantages of AIDS among society
- 4. Outcomes of the Programme : Participated volunteers & students decided to spread awareness among the society about AIDS as well as uproot it.

5. Brief Summary of the Programme:

1st December is observed as World AIDS Day. So, in order to create awareness among the people through various activities, a grand morning rally was organized from C. P. R. Hospital at exactly 8.00 am on the occasion of World AIDS Day organised by 'District AIDS Prevention and Control Team, CPR Hospital, Kolhapur'. This year's motto is "Take the rights path" and this concept is being implemented to move towards ending AIDS.

So, spread awareness among society morning rally started from CPR hospital through cover main road of Kolhapur city. While guiding to the volunteers & students NSS program officer and H.O.D. of Geography Department, Dr. D. L. Kashid-Patil said that the impact of HIV/AIDS on society and the place of youth in it are very important. Therefore, the efforts made by Kolhapur district for public awareness of HIV/AIDS and the activities taken in that regard has always been effective. During the walk, the volunteers & students voluntarily gave slogans against AIDS. All stakeholders, including college students, professors actively participated in this endeavor.

This endeavor received an overwhelming response from the volunteers and students. The entire process was orchestrated by Dr. N. D. Kashid-Patil (NSS Co-coordinator), Assistant Prof.

Shubham Patil, Assistant Prof. Gaurav Katkar, Assistant Prof. Aishwarya Hingmire, Assistant Prof. Pratima Shinde and NSS Co-coordinator Dr. S. D. Jadhav from the NSS Department and Geography Department respectively.
