Organized by the History Department and the IQAC Department, the event featured Dr. S. V. Shikhare as the keynote speaker, with Principal Dr. R. K. Shanediwan presiding.

Dr. Suresh Shikhare emphasized that Chhatrapati Rajaram Maharaj, the eldest son of Rajarshi Shahu Maharaj, played a crucial role in advancing his father's vision, particularly in higher education. His key contributions included the completion of the Radhanagari Dam, financial support of ₹2 lakh to Rajaram College, the establishment of B.T. College and Agricultural

Schools, and various other initiatives aimed at strengthening Kolhapur's educational and social development.

The program began with a floral tribute to Chhatrapati Rajaram Maharaj's bust at Shivaji Library, offered by Dr. K. M. Desai (Head of the Cultural Department) and Dr. D. L. Kashid-Patil (Head of the Geography Department). In his address, Principal Dr. Shanediwan highlighted how Rajaram Maharaj upheld and expanded his father's educational legacy. He encouraged students and faculty to engage in research-based writing on both Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj and Rajaram Maharaj. The event was coordinated by Dr. Pandurang Patil (welcome address and introductory speech) and Dr. Shivaji Jadhav (vote of thanks), with active participation from faculty members, students, and administrative staff.
