5) Brief Summary of the Programme:

25 to 27 September 2024, as part of the Centenary Celebration of Rajarshi Shahu Chhatrapati Maharaj, an exhibition showcasing rare photographs and historical documents related to his life and legacy was organized by the History Department and IQAC. The exhibition was inaugurated by Member of Parliament Shrimant Shahu Maharaj, with Institution Chairman Shri Manasingh Bondre (Dada) in attendance.

The event began with a floral tribute to Shreepatarav Bondre Dada's portrait, performed by the distinguished guests. Director of the State Archives, Mrs. Dipali Patil, and Mr. Ganesh Khodke were honored for their contributions to preserving historical records. The exhibition featured rare and previously unseen photographs of Rajarshi Shahu Maharaj, along with historical documents highlighting his contributions to social justice, education, agriculture, and governance.

A large number of students, faculty members, research scholars, and officials from the Kolhapur State Archives actively participated in the event, making it a significant educational experience. The exhibition provided valuable insights into the life and reforms of Rajarshi Shahu Maharaj, allowing attendees to engage with historical materials that showcased his visionary leadership and progressive policies.
