SWOC Analysis:

Strengths

- Well qualified and experienced staff.
- Departmental organised International conferences, seminars and webinars.
- Well equipped and student friendly departmental library.
- Good SET/NET output
- Strong alumni network

Weaknesses

- Rural-Urban gap regarding the learning potential, which is being made good by providing additional coaching
- Lack of English knowledge among students. Assistance from Department of English is being solicited to overcome this weakness.
- Lagging behind regarding to create research interest among the students.

Opportunities

- Good employment potential, particularly for public services.
- Scope for creation of knowledge through applied research.
- Scope for inter-disciplinary courses required for various competitive examinations.
- Scope for creation of the study literature for various competitive examinations
- Scope for to be the forth pillar of the democratic society.

Challenges

- To bring the technology, social change and political change on the same page.
- To design the new courses considering the need of modern society.

35) Future Planning:

- 1 To start Certificate course
- 2 To inculcate programmes relevant to patriotism and Constitutional sentiments
