Superintendent Mr. Manish Bhosale, and Librarian P. B. Patil. In his presidential speech, Dr. Shanediwani emphasized the importance of enhancing marketing skills through participation in such activities, noting that these skills are essential for students today. More than 80 students participated directly in the Trade Fair, showcasing 21 stalls, while over 2,000 students, faculty, and non-teaching staff visited the event, enjoying the shopping experience. The total turnover for the fair reached ₹30,000. The students set up various stalls featuring consumer goods such as food, vegetables, stationery, mobile accessories, decorative bags, fun games, small gifts, paintings, and handicrafts. The program was coordinated by Prof. Miss Shamal Patil and Mrs. Priyanka Salokhe. A significant number of students, teachers, and non-teaching staff from all educational institutions under the Shree Shahu Chhatrapati Shikshan Sanstha attended the Trade Fair, contributing to its success.
